

CONTRACT RECRUITMENT PROGRAM

OVERVIEW	OBJECTIVE
Columbia Consulting Group provides a focused, specialized cost saving service to address our client's specific needs for top talent, especially regarding diversity, mobility and succession planning purposes.	To be an additional but dedicated resource for clients in their marketplace and to motivate the top talent, who are typically not looking for a job, to consider our client's opportunity.

HOW IT WORKS

Multiple assignments - one monthly retainer to work on up to five assignments - When the client has specific search assignments (either all at once or over the course of a year), we will work on all assignments at the same time, while charging an agreed monthly retainer, with an administration fee a 10% of the retainer, plus the expenses associated with travelling to interview candidates. Worth noting, in keeping with the CDC's request to conduct business safely, we are utilizing online systems for video interviewing and conference calls, which significantly reduces the costs associated with conducting a professional search. We share the risk with our client in the interest of establishing or maintaining an ongoing relationship.

Reduced fee from 33.3% to 25% - Due to the nature of the relationship and volume of work involved, we reduce our fee from 33.3% to 25% of the total first year's cash compensation. There is a one (1) year guarantee on the individual hired.

Settling up timeframe and staying with project until completed - The contract period can vary but tends to last three to twelve months. As the assignments are completed, we would settle-up quarterly, and continue working on assignments until all financial obligations are fully met. We stay with the project until completed. If the client hires an internal candidate or internal referral, there is no additional fee due to us.

Based upon our activities in these areas, we believe we have developed the ability to provide our clients with the following:

- Industry specific databases - using our network and developing a specific functional database, we gain an in-depth knowledge of the candidate universe for our client.
- Compensation trends that are current and actual. As we network with potential candidates, sources and cold calls, we develop real time compensation trends of our clients' competitors.
- Representation of our clients - as an extension of the client in the marketplace, we represent our clients professionally with comprehensive written materials and ethical behavior.
- Best practice - firms are targeted in trying to attract the highest level of talent for our clients.
- Geographical issues are addressed by knowing the area well, and selling the attributes of the community and its people. We have methods to identify who is there and who wants to be.
